

SAH Chicago Annual Meeting at a Glance April 21 - 25, 2010 Holiday Inn Chicago Mart Plaza

Wednesday, April 21

Day-long Historic Preservation Colloquium
The Challenge of Preserving Public Housing

Day-long Landscape History Symposium
Methods and Content in Landscape History

Opening Reception and Introductory Talk
Chicago: First City of Architecture,
Robert Brueggemann, University of Illinois, Chicago

Thursday, April 22

10 paper sessions, 50 lectures on architectural history topics
Award Reception and Plenary Talk at the Richard H. Driehaus Museum and Murphy Auditorium
A Sense of the Past, Alice Friedman, Wellesley College

Friday, April 23

10 paper sessions, 50 lectures on architectural history topics
An Evening on Chicago's Gold Coast
Tour current exhibitions at the Racquet Club, the Graham Foundation, and Charnley-Persky House

Saturday, April 24

5 paper sessions, 25 lectures on architectural history topics
11 tours to buildings, neighborhoods and landscapes in Chicago area Fundraising Benefit for SAH 70th Anniversary and honoring the Founders of the Chicago Seven, the Founders of Chicago Women in Architecture, Philanthropist Seymour H. Persky, and former Graham Foundation Director Carter Manny.

Sunday, April 25

8 day-long tours to outstanding architecture in the city and the region.

All lectures and tours are eligible for AIA/CES Learning Units. Visit the SAH website at www.sah.org for the annual meeting brochure, registration and AIA/CES LU details.