

SAH PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERIES

FREE WORKSHOPS for graduate students and emerging scholars

78th Annual International Conference 2025
Hilton Atlanta

MAY 1

8:30
am

WRITING AND PUBLISHING A RESEARCH ARTICLE

Daniel E. Coslett, Drexel University
Heba Mostafa, University of Toronto

Exploring the state of publication in the field, potential avenues for publishing success, and perspectives on the process based on their work with several journals and academic presses.

11:00
am

FELLOWSHIP AND GRANT APPLICATIONS

Eliana Abu-Hamdi, Pratt Institute

Step-by-step actions for seeking grant opportunities, developing proposals, and utilizing institutional resources as you prepare submissions.

3:30 pm

JOB MARKET

Gabrielle Esperdy, New Jersey Institute of Technology
Brett Tippey, Kent State University

A frank, free-ranging conversation about the complexities of the architectural history job market. Reconsider how historians at all stages approach the hiring process

MAY 2

8:30
am

FROM DISSERTATION WRITING TO PUBLISHING

Anna Bokov, Independent Scholar
Eric P. Mumford, Washington University
St. Louis

Review the process of dissertation writing in architectural history and how that can lead to academic publications.

11:00
am

MATHESES WRITING

Heba Mostafa, University of Toronto

Explore outlining, the fundamentals of introduction and conclusion writing, exercises for generating writing, tools for assessing methodologies as well as techniques for efficient management of citations and figures.

3:00
pm

PUBLISHING BOOK MANUSCRIPTS IN ARCHITECTURAL HISTORY

Michelangelo Sabatino, Illinois Institute of Technology
Swati Chattopadhyay, University of California, Santa Barbara
James Thompson, Bloomsbury Publishers;
Abigail A. Van Slyck, Connecticut College

Cover key challenges, such as refining research questions, positioning books within broader historiographical debates, and navigating peer review. Discuss writing for diverse audiences, ensuring accessibility without compromising scholarly rigor.

Register now

FREE!

